ST. CLAIR SHORES
HISTORICAL MARKERS

On October 1, 2013, Mayor Kip Walby charged the Historical Commission with developing and implementing a historic marker program for the City. The marker was to include pictures and historical information of structures that played a significant role in the development of the City.

On May 17, 2015 the first marker was dedicated at Kyte Monroe Memorial Playfield at Harper Avenue and Masonic Boulevard. Markers that have since been placed:

- Davis Block at Eleven Mile and Harper Avenue
- Richards Automotive at Nine Mile Road and Harper Avenue
- Roy O'Brien Ford at Nine Mile Road and Greater Mack Avenue
- St. Gertrude Church at Jefferson Avenue and L'Anse
- Labadie Farm at Jefferson Avenue and Ten Mile Road
- Blossom Heath at Jefferson Avenue south of Ten Mile Road
- Van's Used Cars at the junction of Little Mack and Harper Avenue
- Eagle Pointe on the Lake Subdivision on Jefferson Avenue north of Ten Mile Road
- Trinity Episcopal Church on Jefferson Avenue and Lake Boulevard
- Lake Shore Church on the corner of Jefferson Avenue and Grove Pointe
- Cpl. Walter F. Bruce VFW Post at Jefferson and Martin Road
- Bommarito Bakery on Greater Mack Avenue south of Nine Mile Road
